

World Fit athlete guide

An Athlete Leader is an Olympian or elite athlete who adopts one or more World Fit schools. Students and their families see your face on their home screen. You post messages, send notes to individual students, and follow how your schools are moving.

Coming in the next release

Athlete Leader is on the staging version of World Fit and is not on production yet. These screens come from that version.

Get started

- 1 World Fit creates your account and links your schools. You get an email, "Your World Fit Athlete Leader account". Tap Choose a password.
- 2 Open the World Fit Games app or `app.worldfitactivities.org`. Tap the Athlete tab, enter your email and password, and tap Log In.
- 3 Home lists Your schools, with how many students take part and how many logs they have made.
- 4 Open a school for its numbers: students taking part, logs, active minutes, points, buddies, logs per day, top students and teams.

2 The Athlete tab.

3 Home: your schools, and three buttons.

4 Demo Elementary on day 32 of 40.

NOTES

Send a note to one student

- On a school's page, tap Note next to a top student, or Note by student ID for anyone.
- Write a sentence or two and tap Send note.
- The student sees it as a celebration the next time they open the app. Their buddy sees it too.
- You see students by ID only, never by name.

Note for a student.

MESSAGES

Post a message

- On Home, tap Post a message.
- Write your message. Add a Photo, a Video up to 3 minutes, or an Audio file up to 5 minutes.
- Choose who sees it: Everyone, Students or Families.
- Tap Post message. It shows on the home screens at your schools.

New message, for everyone.

PROFILE

Your profile

- Tap My profile on Home.
- Add photos. Your main photo, marked with a star, is the face students see.
- Fill in your sport, a short headline such as "2-time Olympian", and a few lines about you. Tap Save profile.
- Students and buddies tap your card to see your profile, your messages and their notes.

LEADERBOARD

Athlete leaderboard

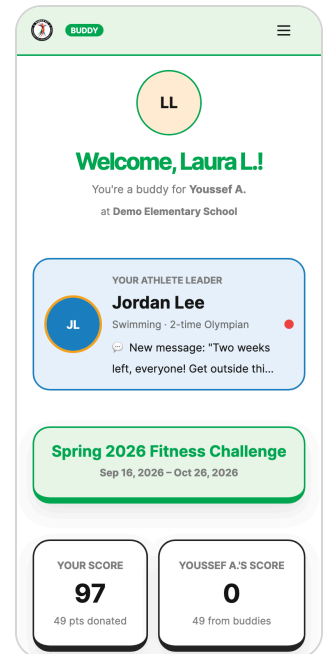

Athletes are ranked by how their schools move, not by school size. Three boards: Overall, Most improved and Participation.

Reach	Share of students who have logged at least once.
Habit	Share of game days the average student logged.
Momentum	Students active in the last 7 days, compared with the first 7. Starts on day 14.
Families	Share of students whose buddy logged in the last 7 days.

A tip under your rank names your lowest measure and what can lift it.

Your rank and your four measures.

Families see your card on their buddy home.

What the school sees

Staff at your schools have an Athlete Leader page in the dashboard. It shows your profile, every message with its audience, and every note with whether the student has seen it. Staff can remove a message or note, and it disappears from the apps.

The screenshot shows the 'Athlete Leader' dashboard for 'Demo Elementary School'. On the left is a sidebar with navigation options: Games, Students, Buddies, Teams, Athlete Leader (selected), Members, Login Activity, Settings, Review, Student Activity (30), Buddy Activity (24), Resources, Activities, and Handouts. The main content area is titled 'Athlete Leader' and features a profile for Jordan Lee (Swimming · 2-time Olympian) with a bio: 'Loves early swims and helping kids find a sport they love.' Below the profile are three sections: 'Messages (4)', 'Notes to students (2)', and a 'Remove' button for each message and note. The messages are: 'Two weeks left, everyone! Get outside this weekend and try a sport you have never played.' (Oct 18, 8:49 AM, Everyone), 'Buddies: take a walk together this weekend.' (Oct 18, 8:13 AM, Families), 'Students: try a new sport this week!' (Oct 18, 8:13 AM, Students), and 'Halfway there! So proud of you all.' (Oct 18, 8:13 AM, Everyone). The notes are: 'Saw your soccer minutes this week. Keep it up, Wei!' (Wei W. wftest-548, Oct 18, 8:48 AM, Seen) and 'Saw your soccer minutes this week. Keep it up, Wei!' (Wei W. wftest-548, Oct 18, 8:13 AM, Seen).

Who sees what

Everyone messages reach students and families.
Students messages skip buddies. Families messages skip students. Notes go to one student and their buddy.
